

Terrific Kids for January 11, 2013

Mrs. Carey - Our kindergarten class is off to a "terrific" start in 2013 by honoring a great little guy for our New Year's Terrific Kid. He is always kind, helpful, and respectful to his classmates and his teachers. He is a good role model for his two little brothers and we know his mom and dad just couldn't be any prouder of their son. He is a wonderful friend to us all and we are so thankful to have him in our kindergarten family. We love our days with James.

Mrs. Walker - Happy New Year 2013 and our KIND Kindergarten class is so happy to celebrate honoring this T.K. boy. He has made good behavior choices and is working very hard to learn his sight words and practice reading his books in his browsing box daily. We know this TK loves the color orange too. HE is surrounded by girls at his work table and at home too. Congratulations to Quinn our first TK in the new year. Way to go!!!!!!

Mrs. Hayes - Our terrific kid this week has chosen to do very neat work. He organized all the "book box" books as the students cleaned them out of their browsing boxes. He was kind and polite to the class as he taught them how to organize them. He is very quick at getting his jobs done. He has a good sense of humor. He is a good reader and writes interesting stories. We are happy to have Connor in our class.

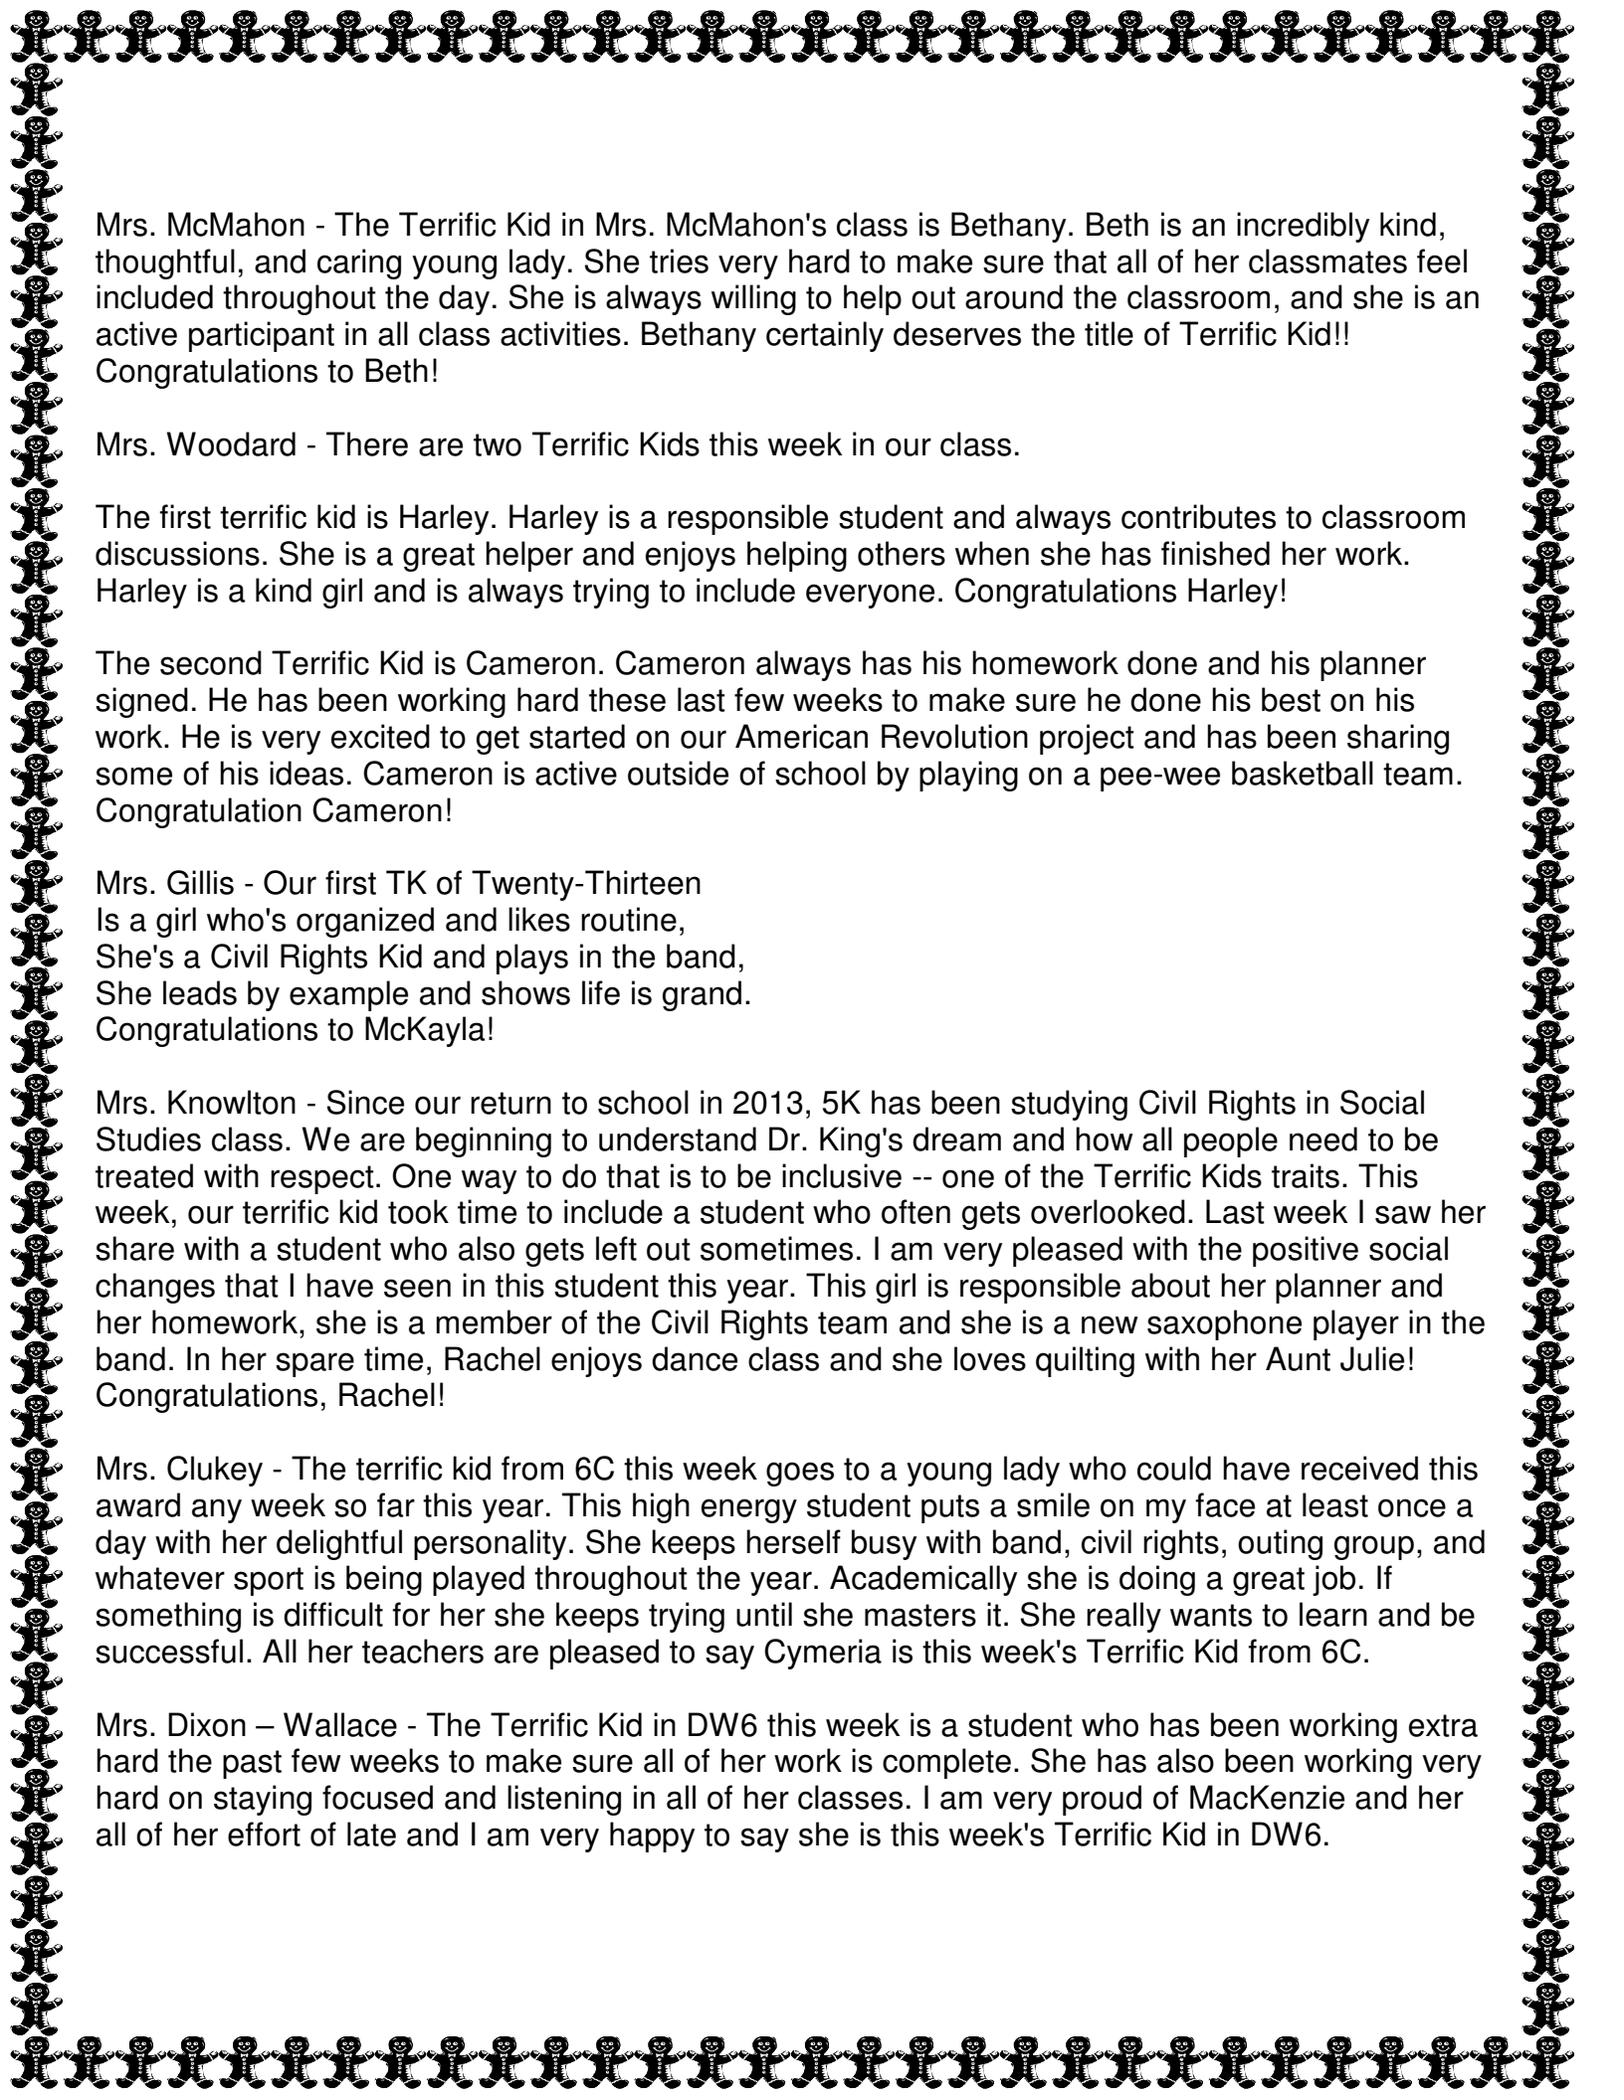

Mrs. Barden - Our first terrific kid for 2013 is a sweet little boy. He is very curious about life and is a hard worker. He never forgets his shoes and remembers everyday to go see Mrs. West at the right times. He4 has a beautiful smile. Congratulations to Marshall, our new terrific kid!

Mrs. Hussey - This week's terrific kid is a friendly, helpful, cooperative young lady. She is also a good big and little sister! Alyssa has a new baby sister named Rebecca. Alyssa has worked hard to improve her reading skills. She always tries her best on tasks and is a good friend to her classmates. She's a great second grader. Congratulations Alyssa!

Mrs. Mower - Our first TK of 2013 is Kaylee. She is our class fashionista. Along with her smile, she always has on something that sparkles and brightens our day! She is a hard working young lady and a great friend to all. Kaylee has been working on her class participation and has been trying to come out of her shell. She has been doing that by sharing her writing to the class, participating more and sharing home projects that she has completed. This all takes a lot of hard work and courage, Kaylee has done it all with ease. We are very proud of you, so keep up the great work!

Mrs. Dunham - Our terrific kid is a boy who comes in with a big smile each day. He gets right to work as soon as he is ready.. He listens carefully during class time. this boy has wonderful manners. He remembers to say please, thank you, and excuse me. All his other teachers say he is a terrific kid in their classes. Congratualtions to Sabastian.

Mrs. Mills - Our terrific kid is a boy who has started the year with a bang. He is completing homework, getting his work done on time, and has great behavior. I hope that this "new kid" continues to show up each day because it is super!! He also has a birthday coming up and is very excited. Congratulations to Justice.

Mrs. McMahon - The Terrific Kid in Mrs. McMahon's class is Bethany. Beth is an incredibly kind, thoughtful, and caring young lady. She tries very hard to make sure that all of her classmates feel included throughout the day. She is always willing to help out around the classroom, and she is an active participant in all class activities. Bethany certainly deserves the title of Terrific Kid!! Congratulations to Beth!

Mrs. Woodard - There are two Terrific Kids this week in our class.

The first terrific kid is Harley. Harley is a responsible student and always contributes to classroom discussions. She is a great helper and enjoys helping others when she has finished her work. Harley is a kind girl and is always trying to include everyone. Congratulations Harley!

The second Terrific Kid is Cameron. Cameron always has his homework done and his planner signed. He has been working hard these last few weeks to make sure he done his best on his work. He is very excited to get started on our American Revolution project and has been sharing some of his ideas. Cameron is active outside of school by playing on a pee-wee basketball team. Congratulation Cameron!

Mrs. Gillis - Our first TK of Twenty-Thirteen
Is a girl who's organized and likes routine,
She's a Civil Rights Kid and plays in the band,
She leads by example and shows life is grand.
Congratulations to McKayla!

Mrs. Knowlton - Since our return to school in 2013, 5K has been studying Civil Rights in Social Studies class. We are beginning to understand Dr. King's dream and how all people need to be treated with respect. One way to do that is to be inclusive -- one of the Terrific Kids traits. This week, our terrific kid took time to include a student who often gets overlooked. Last week I saw her share with a student who also gets left out sometimes. I am very pleased with the positive social changes that I have seen in this student this year. This girl is responsible about her planner and her homework, she is a member of the Civil Rights team and she is a new saxophone player in the band. In her spare time, Rachel enjoys dance class and she loves quilting with her Aunt Julie! Congratulations, Rachel!

Mrs. Clukey - The terrific kid from 6C this week goes to a young lady who could have received this award any week so far this year. This high energy student puts a smile on my face at least once a day with her delightful personality. She keeps herself busy with band, civil rights, outing group, and whatever sport is being played throughout the year. Academically she is doing a great job. If something is difficult for her she keeps trying until she masters it. She really wants to learn and be successful. All her teachers are pleased to say Cymeria is this week's Terrific Kid from 6C.

Mrs. Dixon – Wallace - The Terrific Kid in DW6 this week is a student who has been working extra hard the past few weeks to make sure all of her work is complete. She has also been working very hard on staying focused and listening in all of her classes. I am very proud of MacKenzie and her all of her effort of late and I am very happy to say she is this week's Terrific Kid in DW6.
