Wicked Fun Halloween Dance October 28th

The Milo Recreation Department will be hosting a Halloween Dance on October 28th from 7-10 pm for grades 6, 7, and 8. Admission will be $3 and there will be prizes for the best costumes. Concessions will be available and any adults that may be interested in supervising are encouraged to call the Rec. Dept. at 943-7326.

RABIES CLINIC TO BE HELD AT THE MILO TOWN HALL

The preceding picture is of Achilles, one of the 6 dogs known to have died of "Parvo" in Lagrange. Parvo is a preventable disease. The vaccination for parvo is included in the dog distemper shot. Dogs and puppies who have received their scheduled vaccines are immune to parvo as well as other dog diseases.

Another sad fact about pets in our area is a cat from Dexter tested positive for rabies, after biting someone.

There has never been a more urgent need to immunize your pets to these deadly diseases!

We've got your Connections

Swap it, Sell it, Trade it, TRConnect it!

The Three Rivers News and Three Rivers Community Alliance are launching a new classified ad section, Connections!

Visit <http://www.trcmaine.org/connections> to post your own free classified ads, search for goods and services and much, much more. Connections was built by TRC Maine Webmaster, Mike Phillips, with probably way more help from the rest of the team than he wanted. The end result is a comprehensive section that encourages sharing among residents of our member communities and beyond.

For your convenience an ad submission form is available.

You may also submit your ad by emailing info@trcmaine.org or by mailing your ad to: Connections c/o Isabelle Warren; 6 Kimball Street, Milo, ME 04463. Each submission will be reviewed by an administrator or a moderator before it is posted. You may be asked to furnish additional information. Your ad may be shortened or posted in a section where it will be most appropriate. Ads will generally be left up for 30 days. They are then deleted. If the ad is still relevant at the end of the 30 days you are welcome to repost it and may continue to repost as long as it remains relevant and valid.

For deleting your own posts (as is helpful when something offered for sale has been sold) it is recommended that you save your ad's confirmation of submission e-mail and use that information to delete your ad.

It is the intent of the TRC Maine web team and the staff of the Three Rivers News to provide a safe and reliable resource to our viewers. We are in no way a part of the transaction between a poster and a purchaser and accept no liability for transactions resulting from advertising in Connections. Scams, pyramid schemes and other illegal activities will be reported to appropriate authorities along with any available information. Any person or persons maliciously interfering with the operation of Connections will be dealt with in a manner consistent with any applicable laws.

Dear friends,

Time is quickly passing and already I need to be making plans for our winter/spring 2007 semester and brochure. This letter is being sent in hopes of creating interest and identifying potential instructors for our adult education program.

Participation and sharing of knowledge is what makes adult and community education happen. I would have no program without your and the other teachers' commitment to learning.

If you are willing to teach or know someone else who is willing to teach, please let me know.

Please take a moment to write-up the following items:

- Your course description
- Your start and end dates; day, time, and location that you prefer

Remember, we have three sites, Milo, Guilford, and Dover-Foxcroft, available for class locations. I will need all write-ups and course ideas before October 30, 2006. Our brochure has to be ready for the printer in mid November. Thank you for your time.

Please feel free to call (564-6525), drop in (69 High Street, DF), or email me at Thelma\_regan@msad68.k12.me.us. You may also contact Stephanie Salley, Site Coordinator for M. S. A. ### Milo Elementary's Terrific Kids for 10/13 and 10/20

Brownville Elementary School held their Terrific Kids Assembly on October 19th at the school gymnasium with many parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles, and guests in attendance. Those honored were: David Conlogue in Kindergarten, Hunter Harrison in First Grade, Derek Robinson in Second Grade, Blake Morrison in Third Grade, Phillip Cook in Fourth Grade, Michaela Lovejoy in Fifth Grade and Zachary Slagle in Sixth Grade. Also honored was Chad Barnaby who was Terrific Kid last week in Second Grade, but was absent on the day of the assembly. Many birthdays were celebrated, Caught Being Good prizes were drawn, and Mrs. Witham presented Zena Baker with special award for her "moose sighting" story. Mr. Cochrane was our Kiwanis Friend this morning and he brought guests with him....his nephew and his wife from California and his grand nieces Taylor and Jordan Cochrane.

The Halloween Social at Brownville on Friday was a family affair. Here, Megan & Anisa Witham enjoy the fun with their aunt, Holly Washburn an Ed. Tech at the school who volunteered to help at the event.

Dana, Michaela & Hayley also seemed like they were enjoying the evening

COOK SCHOOL NEWS The Cook School PTO sponsored another successful Halloween Dance. The gym was filled with many ghosts, goblins, princesses and comic book heroes. Cook School graduate, Travis Willette served as DJ for the evening. Several members of the Key Club were at the door to greet the incoming crowd. A box of stuffing, 5 pounds of potatoes or a pound of butter was accepted as admission to the dance. These food items will be served at our Annual Harvest Dinner on November 18. Thank you to the PTO parents who were in charge of set up and clean up. A BOOTIFUL time was had by all.

Editor's Note: Here's a scary thought-I think I recognize the Macarena as the dance in the above photo!!

Halloween dance tonight.

This week's Terrific Kids are Kendra Cross, Haley

Our October 20 assembly opened with the singing of "Grand Old Flag", accompanied by our guitar man, Ronn Parker. Excitement was high in our school, as final preparations are made for our annual Morel, and Hannah Audibert. Miss K. says that Kendra tried hard this week to finish all her assignments, including homework assignments. She is trying hard to get her planner signed every day. Kendra is studying hard, and we especially love her beautiful smile. Mrs. Carter tells us that Haley is a sweet, kind girl. She is always considerate of others, and would never want to hurt anyone's feelings. She is always well-mannered. Haley is adjusting well to second grade, and the responsibilities that come with it including bringing your homework and planner in every day. Miss Brown tells us that Hannah is trying hard to follow directions and fix her mistakes. She always tries her hardest, even when something is hard for her. She gets right to work when it is work time. We are proud of our terrific kids!

Our bus students this week are Kelena, Harli, and Rebecca. Great job being safe on the bus!

Art students this week are Kortnie, David, and Cassidy. These students proudly displayed their wonderful artwork for us.

Birthday wishes were sung to Codie Donlon, who will be 11 next week.

Caught being good bags were awarded to Michael C., Kortnie, David, Cameron, and Ethan.

If you see Ms K this week be extra kind. She is sad about her beloved Mets losing the playoffs. We'll see them next year, just like we will the Red Sox!

Milo Free Public Library News

By Judith Macdougall

How the fall weeks are flying! We had our second Kiwanis Kids program on October 18 with 32 children present, two adults-Val Robertson and Ethelyn Treworgy- and five Key Club members, Kristin Birch, Amber Benoit, Nicole Carey, Josh Clement, and Haley Patten. As the day had been very rainy until nearly the end of the school day, the "Kids" were bussed down to the library. Walking down from school is a good physical activity, and also works off a little of their pent up energy, so they were a little more wired that day. However, they enjoyed peanut butter or cheese crackers and juice, as Val read another Halloween story. During craft time they made lots of "ghosts" to hang on the library shrubbery. If you wonder what on earth is going on as you drive by the library, the "Kids" made lots of pumpkin ghosts by stuffing newspaper into orange and yellow plastic bags and tying the ends. Then they hung the bags on the shrubbery for an outdoor fun time while waiting for their parents to come and pick them up. See how festive the library looks the next time you drive by our "ghost bushes".

We have had several donations of popular authors this week by various friends of the library. Our California friend, Esperanza Crackel, sent us a box of Stephen King and Laura Ingalls Wilder books. Most of the Stephen King books we already had and they will be good for extras, but there was one book our library has never had-Black House. This was exciting to receive. Esperanza also sent us the Laura Ingalls Wilder book Little House in the Ozarks, which is a sampler of rediscovered writings that predated the "Little House" books by many years, and would be enjoyed by adults who as children loved her later juvenile books.

Neil Hamlin, a library trustee and friend, donated the new L.L.Bean-the making of an American Icon. This book was written by Leon Gorman, a grandson of the original L.L. Neil also donated I Shouldn't Even be Doing This by Bob Newhart. Thank you, Neil, for these fine additions to our non-fiction collection.

Another friend, a mystery lover who prefers to remain anonymous, donated three new mystery books. They are:
 Carl, JoAnna THE CHOCOLATE BRIDAL BASH (another addition to the popular chocoholics series)
 Francis, Dick UNDER ORDERS (Sid Halley)

Dick Francis has not written a book for several years so this is a treat for his many fans
 Kelley, Lee Charles DOGGED PURSUIT

We also have brand new books. For our juvenile patrons we received another box from the Junior Library Guild with the following books:

Gail, Carson Levine FAIREST (a heroine with a fine singing voice and a magic mirror)
 Matthews, L.S. A DOG FOR LIFE (Mouse, a dog, and his master, John, go on a journey to save a life)
 Paterson, Katherine BREAD AND ROSES TOO (Based on a historical strike in the early 1900's when children were sent to Vermont to be safe until the strike was over)

And we have these new adult books from Baker & Taylor:

Baldacci, David THE COLLECTORS
 Brown, Rita Mae THE HOUNDS AND THE FURY
 George, Elizabeth WHAT CAME BEFORE HE SHOT HER
 Grisham, John THE INNOCENT MAN
 King, Stephen LISEY'S STORY (The review I read said King could not have written this book in his early days)
 Ludlum, Robert THE BANCROFT STRATEGY
 Parker, Robert B. HUNDRED-DOLLAR BABY (Spenser)
 Spencer-Fleming, Julia ALL MORTAL FLESH (Rev. Clare Fergusson & Russ Van Alstyne- For readers of this series, this book will be a shock)

And this next book is interesting in that it had its origin in another book. For readers of the Jan Karon Mitford series, this is a book based on Cynthia Coppersmith's books about Violet, her cat. Remember Cynthia was an author before she ever met Father Tim and now Jan Karon has found a gifted new author, Melanie Cecka, whom she feels can write in the voice of Cynthia. This first book by Melanie and illustrated by Emily Arnold McCully is Violet Comes to Stay. Of course, it is a juvenile book, but lovers of the Jan Karon books might enjoy reading about Violet as I did.

Please note; the library will be closed Friday, November 10, but will be open Saturday, November 11.

CURIOSITY NOTES

No matter how old you are; learning experiences are always just around the corner. We often learn something new about business and what our customers would like.

So, we have decided to respond to repeated customer suggestions to lower our clothing prices. We will soon be offering much lower prices on our entire inventory of children's and adult clothing of all sizes and descriptions. We have a very large selection that changes weekly so be sure to stop by in the weeks to come to get some great deals. As for our many other items, please feel free to make any reasonable offer – you never know!

Halloween is coming up very soon and we have a tote of dollar accessories and outfits to complete your perfect costume. There are gloves, hats, scarves, dresses, skirts, leather-like pants and ties – lots and lots of ties. And in the spooky spirit of Halloween, stop in October 28th and 31st for a sweet treat; a little gift of candy for visitors on those days.

We've received 10 scary stories from 4th and 5th graders. They were very enjoyable to read. The difficult part is choosing prize winners. It was worth everyone's effort to send in stories. The winners will be published in an upcoming edition of the Three Rivers News.

ATTENTION: Crafters and Business Owners

The Milo Elementary Parent/Teach Organization is pleased to present our annual Holiday crafts and Business Fair on Sunday, November 26 at the Milo Elementary School cafeteria located at 18 Belmont Street. The fair will be open from 12 to 4 pm.

80" school tables are available to rent for $15.00 on a first come-first serve basis. There are also 4' to 6' spaces for rent for $10.00 each. Electricity will NOT be available at the tables. We encourage and welcome any crafters, small businesses or civic organizations to participate. Crafters and businesses are permitted to begin setting up on Saturday evening with prior notification or on Sunday starting at 9 am.

To ensure proper spacing, we ask that you call Victoria Eastman at 943-2400 or Milo Elementary at 943-2122 before November 3rd.

Three Rivers Kiwanis – Milo, Brownville Minutes of Meeting October 18,2006

The weekly meeting of Three Rivers Kiwanis was held at The Restaurant with President, Ethelyn Treworgy, presiding and 21 members present. Also attending were an interclub from both Dover-Foxcroft Kiwanis and Dexter Sunrise Kiwanis, and four members of the Penquis Valley Key Club.

New member, Jane Jones, was inducted in a ceremony provided by Eben DeWitt. Welcome, Jane.

Happy & Sad Dollars were given for the passing or a friend; a Business Seminar at Penquis CAP; new after school activity program for 12 to 15 year olds; $900. water bill on Florida home??; for home addition completed and residents moving in; Dexter club has fruit for sale; for a good medical report; and for Jane becoming a new member.

Key Club reported that they are helping with the Milo Elementary Fall Frolic, a dance at LaGrange school, and an American Legion project. They also offered to help at the Library After School Program that day.

Five members plan to travel as an interclub to Dexter Sunrise Kiwanis on Friday, Oct. 20.

Plans for Coffee House Saturday night are going well. Nancy needs pumpkins for tables and desserts.

Ethelyn reported about the October Board Meeting held Oct. 12th. A donation of $ 200. was received from the American Legion Post # 41 for our Veterans Dinner. In addition, a donation of $50. was received from Bill Sawtell for the same purpose. A huge thank you to these people for their support.

Kiwanians who decide to assist Secret Santa by buying items for a family are invited to bring those items to the Town Hall the evening of Dec. 11th at which time there will be a social time with refreshments. Contact Janet Richards if you would like to participate.

A donation of $ 200. was made to the Brownville 6th Graders Quilting Program for materials and supplies. Myrna Ricker runs this program every Friday morning and several students, both boys and girls, really enjoy this.

Jim Macomber has volunteered to do the placemats for the Veterans Dinner.

Because Treasurer, Jeff Gahagan, was ill the day of the Board Meeting, another board meeting was held on Oct. 17th so he could present the Treasurer's report and the budget for the year 2006-2007.

Jeff Gahagan then introduced the speaker, Sharon Libby Jones, Democratic Candidate for the Maine Senate. Sharon first thanked all Kiwanians for the wonderful work they do in their communities.

Sharon and her husband hail from Greenville and own a snowplowing business and have a new RV campground. She has served two terms in the House of Representatives and feels her experience will be very beneficial in the Senate. She served on three committees as a freshman legislator, one being the Criminal Justice Committee and was happy to see the Charleston Correctional Center as a result. She also served on the Research & Development Committee. She feels R & D is very beneficial as they provide great jobs. Two examples are the Loring project and the Jackson Lab.

Her work on the Maine Tourism Task Force working with the hospitality industry resulted in a dedicated amount to fund tourism marketing. She is proud of the Natural Resource Center in Greenville that teaches the public about the resources of the area.

Sharon is a strong supporter of our highway system improvement. Legislation is important so we don't lose our rail system also.

She is proud of the accomplishments of our area in revitalizing our communities. And she feels her 30+ years in public service in many different positions being a small business owner dealing with the issues of business in Maine will benefit her ability to serve the people of Maine.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted, Lois Trask, Sec.

Ede lived a wonderful life rich in family values and traditions. She took pride in her ability to be a homemaker and was a talented cook. She epitomized the family matriarch. Ede was extremely witty and spirited. She was known for her sense of humor. She was very active and enjoyed square dancing, fishing and snowsledding. Ede's legacy lives on through her children and grandchildren. She is survived by her husband of 68 years, Robert of Milo; a daughter, E. Claire Daigle and her husband, Terry, of Millinocket; a son, Robert Jr. and his wife, Vicki, of Orrington; grandchildren, Michael Jr. and his wife, Patti Daigle and their children, Michael III, Seth, Hannah, Chris, Nikki; Matthew and his wife, Kim Daigle and their child, Kristin; Jason and his wife, Janet Daigle and their children, Joshua and Jordan; Stacy and her husband, Matthew LaBree and their children, Cameron and Alexis; Heather and her husband, Marc Corey; Robbie and his wife, Carrie Jardine; Michelle and her husband, Dale Hayes and their children, Miranda and Dale Ryan; and George Simon; several nieces and nephews; two special family members, Theresa Germain and Debbie Daigle. She was predeceased by a son, Wayne C. Jardine. Burial will be in the family lot, Greenville Cemetery. Those who wish may make memorial contributions to the Brownville Community Church, P.O. Box 706, Brownville, ME 04414.

LEON A. BOWDOIN MILO and BROWNVILLE Leon A. Bowdoin, 86, died Oct. 18, 2006, at a Bangor hospital. He was born May 26, 1920, in Milo, the son of Charles and Ruth (Clark) Bowdoin. Leon served with the U.S. Army during World War II and had been a lifelong resident of Milo and Brownville.
